Date: 25 March 1994

1. Include an Executive Summary before the Introduction.
2. Page 10, Section 3.0, last para: Indicate the problems encountered with the handling, transportation, and lab analysis of the samples.
3. Page 12, Section 4.3, 2nd para: Chapter 3.1, Article 11, Section 62.1-44.34:14 et seq. of the Code of Virginia regulates this type of release. Leaking underground storage tank (LUST) requirements (i.e. perform an initial abatement report and a site characterization report) still apply to this site. Change the paragraph to indicate Virginia Department of Environmental Quality, Water Division still has authority over this site.
